CSKC SPRAY SHEET AUGUST 2025

August often slips quietly between the excitement of mid-winter races and the expectation of the change of season. It doesn't have the fireworks of January, the long weekends of April, or the festive energy of December. August is just... August. Ordinary.

But there's a charm in that. It's a month where paddlers settle into routine: steady kilometres on the river, winter mornings that test your resolve, and training sessions where progress isn't flashy but consistent. The club hums along without fuss, and those "ordinary" strokes in August lay the foundation for the extraordinary results we see later in the season.

So while August might not be the headline act of the calendar, it's a reminder that ordinary months matter. They're the backbone of paddling – the quiet kilometres, the laughs at the boat shed, the shared snacks after training. Ordinary, yes. But also essential.

We've also been kept on our toes by our race director with fun variations on the course and a complete left field day where we had to guess our time and the closest to their guessed time was the winner. Some of the guesses were hilarious, some were serious, but the winner on the day, finishing 5 seconds away from his nominated time, was Paul Somers. Well done Paul.

Speaking of extraordinary strokes, a little further down, we see Helen, John Lee and Michael McKeogh heading off to Győr, Hungary. None of us has any doubt that all the Aussies from the various clubs around Australia heading over to compete will do so with true Aussie spirit and make us proud. It's a testament to the Aussie Spirit and our chosen sport of paddling.

More International News

From 12 years ago in Turin Italy, to right now in Győr, Hungary, more extraordinary paddlers from Cronulla Sutherland are heading over to battle it out on the international stage at the 2025 ICF Canoe Marathon World Championships. Michael McKeogh, John Lee and Helen Lee as well as a group of Aussies from other clubs. See the article below written by Michael's wife, Neryl and published in the Leader Newspaper 24th August 2025.

Cronulla Sutherland Kayak Club will be well represented at the 2025 ICF Canoe Marathon World Championships in Győr, Hungary early next month. John Lee, Helen Lee and Club President Michael McKeogh will vie for honours in the hotly-contested Masters category, joining a strong Aussie team also competing across Junior, Senior, Under 23 and Para disciplines. Michael McKeogh says it's been a busy lead-up to the championships.

"It was exciting to compete in the Australian Championships in Perth in April and it's an honour to be selected on the Australian team to compete in Hungary," he said.

Cronulla Sutherland Kayak Club members train on Port Hacking between Audley and Bundeena, with members regularly competing in flat water kayak races and ocean surf ski events around Australia.

For a small club, we punch well above our weight when it comes to Australian representation and podium results," Michael said. "We're also an incubator for the champions of the future. Through our links with local surf clubs, we offer expert coaching to young paddlers who want to increase their kayaking skills."

"At the other end of the scale, our older members benefit from regular competition along with the social side of being part of a vibrant club."

CRONULLA SUTHERLAND KAYAK CLUB

Michael says all age groups at the World Championships will see intense racing - and the Masters category is no exception.

The Masters category is full of former world champions and Olympians as well as general athletes who enjoy being at the top of their game at any age," he said.

"The low-impact nature of this sport allows people to keep racing well into their senior years, which is why we still have amazing paddlers going strong in their eighties."

Regardless of the age group they're competing in, members of the Australian team will be working hard against athletes who live and breathe canoe marathon.

"Kayak marathon paddling is a huge sport in Europe - bigger than rugby league in Australia, in some cases. We're taking it up to the Europeans in their own backyard and it will be a big challenge - but we'll all be there proudly representing Cronulla Sutherland and Australia," Michael said.

you're amazing!
