CSKC SPRAY SHEET DECEMBER 2025

December is a month for eating, drinking, reflecting on the year, and catching up with friends and family we haven't seen in far too long. Did I mention eating?

It's also the month—hopefully—for slowing down, taking a breather, and getting out on the water a little more.

This time of year, it invites gratitude for the year that was and appreciation for the people who show up and paddle alongside us. It's the perfect moment to pause and acknowledge those who have been part of our journey throughout the year.

Overall, it was an excellent year for paddling. Some got faster, some got slower, some changed boats, and others took on wild and interesting challenges—but everyone contributed to a great year on the water.

I hope you all had a wonderful Christmas, and I wish you a safe, happy, and paddle-filled New Year.

20 BEACHES

In November, there were a couple of races that I didn't cover in the November Spray Sheet, so here they are. The first one was the 20 beaches on the 1st of November. It was the 31st Running of the Shaw and Partners 20 Beaches

Ocean Classic. From the pictures on the Shaw and Partners website, the conditions look gnarly. (is that still a current term), Not only that, but the faces of the paddlers coming in looked relieved that it was over.

The 20 Beaches Ocean Classic is one of the most iconic Ocean Paddling races in Australia since first held in 1990 and run by the Manly Warringah Kayak Club. Traditionally raced from Manly to Palm Beach in a Southerly or Palm Beach to Manly in a North Easterly, the 20 Beaches Ocean Classic has attracted the cream of Australia's best Ocean Paddlers, who vie to hold up the coveted Steve Wood Trophy. The Steve Wood Trophy is decorated with some of the legends of our sport who have dominated this race including, Dean Gardiner (1990,1992), Tim Jacobs (2000, 2001, 2003, 2005, 2006, 2010, 2013) Jeremy Cotter (2007, 2009, 2013), Murray Stewart (2008, 2012) & Clint Robinson (2011). Beyond the leading pack of competitors, the 20 Beaches Ocean Classic always provides a fantastic opportunity for paddlers to test their Ocean Racing skills on the challenging point-to-point racetrack.
