CSKC SPRAY SHEET APRIL 2026

It's been a big month on the water for the club. We kicked things off with a couple of early season hit-outs before rolling straight into our first official race on the 18th — a great turnout and, thankfully, some kind conditions to match.

Away from home waters, Paul Moses has once again thrown himself into the deep end (literally), lining up in another whitewater event alongside some of the sport's elite. Not to be outdone, Michael McKeogh made the trip to Tasmania for the National Ocean Racing Championships — no doubt mixing a bit of racing with some well-earned food and wine.

Meanwhile, a strong CSKC contingent headed to Canberra for the Marathon Championships, and true to form, our travelling crew brought home a stack of top-three finishes. At this point, it's hardly a surprise — we've got some seriously impressive paddlers in this club.

And one last thing, but most importantly, Paddle Australia have announced the teams for Argentina in October of this year, see below for the CSKC participants.

Paddle Australia Canoe Slalom National Championships. 17-18th April

Paul Moses threw himself into the deep end at Penrith Whitewater Stadium during the Paddle Australia Canoe Slalom National Championships, lining up alongside some of the country's top paddlers, the fox sisters. This event was held at the Penrith White Water Stadium, and not to brag or anything but won his division and was presented his medal by Noemie Fox. Can we just take a moment to notice the MASSIVE smile.

What's on

A spectacular venue for extreme fun or special events, Penrith Whitewater Stadium is one of only a few man-made rivers of its kind in the Southern Hemisphere. Located one hour west of Sydney at the foothills of the Blue Mountains and the Nepean River, the venue is ideal for a day trip or stay in the Penrith Valley region.

CANBERRA

The Canberra Marathon Championships delivered plenty of CSKC action, with our paddlers proving they were not just there for the scenery.

Club legends Helen and John Lee brought home the bacon in the doubles, with John then backing up for another doubles race alongside Darren Lee. Vuki missed first place in his division by a whisper, Paul put in a strong performance despite feeling the fatigue, and David Came also made his mark — definitely one to keep an eye on.

And then there was Neil Wiblin. Quietly going about his business, as always, he blitzed his way into second place in his division, proving once again that it is often the quiet ones you need to watch.

Not to be outdone, Helen Lee flew the flag for the ladies with a fabulous third place. Vuki then backed up in the Open division, also placing third, with only seconds separating the top six. David went around again in another division and also claimed third, with only seconds between the top three. Neil clearly decided one strong result was not enough and went back out to win his division, while Helen backed up again in the general division to claim another third in yet another tight race.

All in all, a fantastic showing from the CSKC crew in Canberra — lots of podiums, plenty of grit, and apparently no shortage of people willing to paddle themselves into exhaustion for club glory. I don't know about you but I'm feeling exhausted and I wasn't even there LOL.
